Respected Sir/Madam,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the role of Assistant Engineer at Rajan Engineering Private Co., as advertised in The Hindu dated 30th July 2025. Having recently completed my degree in Information Technology from CHARUSAT University, I am eager to begin my professional career with a company renowned for its engineering excellence and progressive outlook.

Over the course of my studies, I have consistently focused on building a strong sense of responsibility, adaptability, and collaborative working habits. I am deeply committed to personal growth and believe in contributing meaningfully to team objectives while being open to learning at every stage.

What appeals to me most about Rajan Engineering is its emphasis on nurturing young professionals and offering long-term growth opportunities.
